CKMS students participate in year's 1st fire drill...

In the effort to ensure that all our students are safe in an emergency, this week we practiced our building evacuation procedure. All students and staff exited the building orderly and everyone was accounted for within 3 minutes of the alarm being pulled. We do an evacuation drill each month during the school year.

It was really great to see so many parents attend Curriculum Night on Thursday. I hope that each of you got a flavor of what your children are experiencing each day they are here. We have some excellent teachers here at Chief Kanim Middle School, and hope your time with them was well spent. Do not hesitate to contact us with your questions during the school year.

You will be able to use Family Access today to get an update of your child's grades. If you did not receive the password and login information that was mailed home this week contact our main office.

I want to commend those students who ran for our ASB Executive Council this week. The students did a great job campaigning with posters and some impressive speeches.

This week I have had the opportunity to drop into each and every classroom. I am impressed that all our staff is posting and pointing out to our students what the Learning Target is for the day's lesson. When I ask the students what the Learning Target is for the day they are able to articulate it to me in a way I can understand. This feedback from the students is evidence to me that they are comprehending the lessons being taught.

Remember all lessons can be found on the teachers' Share

E-Flyers

Introducing Community E-Flyers!

A new feature has been added to the District website called E-Flyers. E-Flyers provides an opportunity for community organizations to share information with families about local events and activities that offer educational, civic, recreational or cultural value to our students. Families can now go to one location - the E-Flyers icon on the district's homepage - to view all announcements that have been submitted to the District and approved for posting. Learn about community-sponsored events intended for students and families, and school-sponsored activities that welcome community participation. Flyers are posted chronologically with the most recent additions at the top of the list. Simply click on the title that sparks your interest to view that flyer. Visit E-Flyers regularly for ongoing updates, or sign up for email alerts about new postings (RSS feed.) Here are just a few of the recent E-Flyers posted:

- "The Role of Parents in Athletics" presentation, Sept. 29
- Si View Metro Parks Teen Night 10.9.10
