About the Instructors

North Bend, Pine Lake, Snoqualmie, AM Child Montessori, Thoreau, Stevenson & Enatai: Sensei Andre' Dulce, 6th Degree Black Belt, is the instructor at these locations. He is the Head Instructor for Washington Shotokan Association and oversees the 12 WSA branches. His karate classes are disciplined and structured, but also fun and exciting making it a very rewarding experience for your child!

Snoqualmie: Sempai Matt Burley, 2nd Degree Black Belt, is assisted by Sempai Scott Kosinski who is in management for Amazon.com. Both are excellent karate instructors who volunteer their time and knowledge of karate! They will introduce the Shotokan Karate system to your child making it a fun and informative learning experience!

Enatai: Sempai Fred Graetzer is the Northwest District Manager for Alpenrose Dairy, Inc. and for Baskin-Robbins franchises. With his busy work schedule, he manages to volunteer his time in teaching Shotokan Karate to the youths in the Enatai - Bellevue area! Your child will find Sempai Graetzer an excellent & fun karate instructor!

Stevenson: Sempai Mary Murphy, Black Belt, volunteers her lunch hour to teach karate to youths at Stevenson. She is a Senior Program Manager for Allyis and was formerly with Microsoft - in the enterprise sales division. You will find her karate classes structured and discipline, but very fun and rewarding at the same time. Her karate students love her - just as your child will!
